HAWERA HIGH SCHOOL CODE OF CONDUCT FOR EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

School Expectation for Participation:

- Students will display good sportsmanship at all times.
- Students will always abide by the school rules when representing the school.
- Students will respect team mates, coaches, managers, officials and opposition and refrain from using inappropriate language.
- Students unable to attend practices must inform the person in charge.
- Students will wear correct uniform to all events.
- Students will return all uniforms issued to them by the school in good clean condition.
- If uniforms are not returned by a given time an account will be sent for its replacement.
- Students will contribute to any extra-curricular fees including any bond, prior to the competition commencing. (Automatic payments can be set up through the school office). Fees to be paid by the end of Term 2. No pay, no play.
- Payment of subs will be taken as intention to play. Refunds will not be given if student withdraws.
- Students contact and medical / health details will be given to coaches / managers / TIC.
- Schoolwork shall take priority and no assessments shall be missed without prior written consent and agreement with the teacher/s concerned.
- Students with less than 80% attendance, more than 10 pastoral incidents (per term and at the discretion of the principal) and/or on Daily Report/Step, will be stood down from their event.
- If students fail to comply with the above, they will be withdrawn after consultation with their Dean/Principal. The Dean will notify students and parents, and the Sports Coordinator will then contact their coach.
